Acquisition of Altamira
Creating the undisputed leader in NPL and REO servicing in Southern Europe

January 8, 2019
Strategic Highlights of a Landmark Acquisition for doBank

Altamira Asset Management
• Leading debt recovery and real estate platform in Europe, with c.55bn AuM, full cycle capabilities and long-term servicing agreements with 14 strategic clients
• Independent, pure asset light, international presence and with a strong management team

doBank and Altamira: the #1 gateway for NPL/RE investors into Southern Europe
• AuM >€140bn, leader in Italy, Spain, Greece and Cyprus and a top player in Portugal
• Pure servicing platform granting investors an exposure to over €650bn NPAs in the region
• Diversification to hedge across single macro cycles: multi-client, multi-country and multi-product

Highly complementary businesses with potential for improved performance
• Expectation to improve standalone Altamira’s NPL performance and doBank’s REO1 performance
• Cross-selling revenue through know-how sharing in NPL and REO1
• Greater operational efficiency due to the integration of management platforms

Attractive financial impacts with EPS and DPS accretion from onset
• Ordinary EPS accretion from 2019E, >20% accretion in 2020E before synergies
• DPS accretion from 2019E, confirming the Group’s dividend policy (at least 65% of consolidated ordinary Net Income)

Executing on a significant pillar of the 2018-2020 Business Plan
• doBank tapping into the structurally growing and profitable servicing market in Southern Europe
• Financial discipline of capital deployment and peak leverage below 3x Net Debt/EBITDA with rapid decline due to expected cash generation

1. Real Estate Owned Asset. Real Estate collateral of a loan owned by the bank as repayment
Acquisition Structure Overview

Transaction structure

- Acquisition of an 85% stake of Altamira Asset Management valued - for 100% - €412m Enterprise Value plus an earn-out of up to €48m linked to the developments of the international business

- doBank to maintain a controlling interest in Altamira
  - Tag-along right of Santander
  - Potential re-investment of another current holder of Altamira

- Transaction to be financed via new senior debt already committed of up to €450m\(^1\), targeting a PF net leverage below 3.0x (in line with Business Plan), reducing quickly due to high cash flow generation

- Closing expected by May 2019 subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals from relevant authorities and the completion of doBank’s corporate reorganization when doBank will cease to be a Banking Group

1. 5-year bank credit line of up to €450 million underwritten by a syndicate of domestic and international banks. The credit line will bear an interest rate of 6-month Euribor plus an initial spread of 250 basis points, linked to changes in consolidated leverage

Comments and expected trend

- Higher weight of base fees vs doBank
- Conservative acquisition business plan assumes growing Altamira EBITDA in the medium term
  - Upsides from performance improvement in collection rates
  - Upsides from international development
  - Upsides from revenue and cost synergies
- Net Income growth above EBITDA growth due to progressively reducing depreciation charges
- Strong operating cash flow generation at approx. €90m in 2018E

- Santander and SAREB contracts included in intangible assets and accounts payable, reflecting past investments. Depreciation affecting Net Income
- Other intangibles goodwill and patent, license and brand
- Financial liabilities include bank debt to be refinanced post acquisition within doBank’s bank debt of up to €450m
Concluding Remarks

Transformational transaction consistent with our strategy

- Creation of the undisputed leader in pure servicing in Southern Europe
- Significantly more diversified business and geographic profile, creating opportunities for clients and reducing macro volatility to each country’s macro cycle
- Execution on a major pillar of the 2018-2020 Business Plan

Strong strategic and business fit

- Aligned business models: independent pure servicer, asset light, leaders in key markets
- Long-term and forward-flow agreements with leading financial institutions as well as well-known investment funds for third party advisory and portfolio management
- Complementary management team with experience and strong track record
- Unique platform to take advantage of the sector’s strong fundamentals in Southern Europe

Attractive financial impacts and value creation potential

- Performance and commercial improvement of current Altamira’s NPL business and doBank’s REO business as well as operational efficiencies due to the integration of management platforms with very low execution risk
- Attractive EPS and DPS accretion from year 1, also before synergies
- Optimised capital structure post transaction, with quick deleveraging thanks to strong cash generation
